

EDI Environmental Dynamics Inc. provides extensive expertise to clients in the oil and gas industry

Specific services include:

- Fish and fish habitat assessment
- Wildlife and wildlife habitat assessment (including suitability and functional analysis)
- Stream crossing assessment and monitoring
- Terrestrial and wetland classification
- Ungulate winter range and wildlife habitat areas assessment
- Old growth management area assessment
- Mitigation planning and deviation requests
- Schedule A/B soil assessment
- Biomonitoring using invertebrates
- Environmental permitting and agency liaison
- Environmental monitoring and site management

Our team of professionals assists clients in the environmental aspect of oil and gas projects specializing in assessments, permitting, monitoring and remediation. EDI works closely with our clients during the application phase of pipeline, road and well site development and at seismic-water extraction sites.